IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF UTAH

PAMELA WHITNEY,

Plaintiff,

vs.

9TH AND 9TH RETAIL, LLC, a Utah limited liability company, John Does I – X, XYZ Corporations and/or Limited Liability Companies I – X.

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Case No. 2:20-CV-160-DBP

Magistrate Dustin B. Pead

Plaintiff Pamela Whitney, by and through her attorney Matthew B. Crane of Ford & Crane PLLC, hereby files complaint against 9th and 9th Retail, LLC, a Utah limited liability company, John Does I – X, Corporations I – X and/or Limited Liability Companies I – X, and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action seeks redress against Defendants in the form of declaratory relief and a permanent injunction to enjoin Defendants' unlawful violation of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act¹ (the “ADA” or the “Act”), along with attorney’s fees and costs as allowed by the Act². Defendants maintain illegal architectural barriers to access on its premises and have failed to make necessary modifications to allow persons with disabilities to fully enjoy the goods and services offered to the general public as required by the ADA³.

2. On July 21, 1990, the United States Department of Justice issued design standards to be implemented in the construction of new buildings (the “1991 Standard”). These regulations are titled as the ADA Standards for Accessible Design and are codified at 28 C.F.R. Part 36. Appendix A to Part 36 contains the ADA Accessibility Guidelines (referred to herein as “ADAAG”), which are the technical requirements to which buildings constructed on or after January 26, 1991 but before September 15, 2010 must adhere to in order to comply with the ADA.

3. Even if the non-conforming barriers were constructed prior to 1990, places of public accommodation must comply with the 1991 Standard if compliance is readily achievable.⁴

4. On September 15, 2010, the Department of Justice revised the ADA Standards for Accessible Design and the ADAAG, which revisions are codified at 28 C.F.R. Part 36, subpart D and Part 1191 (the “2010 Standard”). The 2010 Standard applies to buildings constructed or altered in a relevant manner after March 15, 2012. Buildings constructed or altered on or after September 15, 2010 but before March 15, 2012 must comply with either the 1991 or 2010 Standard.

5. Any site that has undergone relevant renovations since March 2012 must fully comply with the 2010 Standard, rather than maintaining compliance with the 1991 Standard alone.⁵

6. Title III of the ADA specifically governs barriers to access in places of public accommodation operated by private entities such as Defendants.

PARTIES, JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. Plaintiff Pamela Whitney is a citizen and resident of the State of Utah.

8. Plaintiff has been diagnosed with multiple sclerosis or “MS” which is an unpredictable, disabling disease of the central nervous system.

9. As a result of MS, Plaintiff suffers from several common MS symptoms including cognitive impairments, pain and weakness on right side of her body, numbness in her hands, feet and legs, fatigue, burning and icy hot sensation on the bottom of her feet, tremors and uncontrollable shaking in her hands and legs, depression, difficulty with ambulation, nerve pain on the bottom of her feet and on the right side of her face.

12. Plaintiff has a permanent disability parking permit from the State of Utah.

13. Defendant 9th and 9th Retail, LLC (“9th and 9^{th”}) is a Utah limited liability company which owns the real property located at approximately 902-920 East in Salt Lake City, Utah (the “Premises”)⁶.

14. Upon information and belief, Defendant 9th and 9th leases commercial space on the Premises to other entities for the operation of various shops and cafés.

15. The Premises is a “place of public accommodation” subject to the requirements of Title III of the ADA.

16. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331, §2201 and 42 U.S.C. §12188.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

18. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing paragraphs herein.

19. Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act expressly prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, privileges or accommodations by any person that owns, leases or operates any place of public accommodation.⁷

20. Under the ADA, discrimination includes failure to remove architectural barriers to access by disabled persons, where readily achievable, or to make reasonable modifications to policies and procedures to afford goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations to individuals with disabilities.⁸

21. Plaintiff Pamela Whitney lives with a permanent disability and must use a wheelchair for mobility.

22. Defendants own the Premises and/or lease space or operate a business located at the Premises. Defendants offer goods and services to the general public and the Premises is a place of public accommodation as defined by C.F.R. §36.104 and 42 U.S.C. §12181(7).

23. Plaintiff has visited the Premises and has encountered barriers to access, which makes it impossible for her to fully enjoy the goods and services offered.

24. The architectural barriers to access on Defendants' Premises include, but are not limited to, the following:

25. The slope of the walking surface on the accessible route exceeds the maximum allowable slope of 1:20 under ADAAG.⁹

⁷ 42 U.S.C. §12101.

⁸ 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(2)(A)(ii) and (iv).

⁹ 1991 Standard §§3.5 "Ramp", 4.3.7; 2010 Standard §§106.5 "Ramp", 403.3.

26. Accessible parking spaces and their access aisles have surface areas with slopes exceeding the 1:48/2.083% (2010) and 1:50/2% (1991) maximum allowed by ADAAG (with slopes as great as 5.6%).¹⁰

27. The accessible route from accessible parking to the entrance crosses large gaps, cracks and other barriers that violate rules against changes in level under ADAAG.¹¹

28. The Premises has no van accessible space, access aisle or sign that meet the requirements of ADAAG.¹²

29. Accessible parking at the Premises has no access aisles as required by ADAAG.¹³

30. The accessible route sidewalk to the accessible entrance includes sections which exceed the maximum allowable cross-slope of 1:50/2% (1991 Standard) and 1:48/2.0833% (2010 Standard) under ADAAG.¹⁴

31. Removal of the architectural barriers to access is readily achievable and could be completed by Defendants without significant difficulty or expense by re-surfacing parking spaces and assess aisle and replacing portions of the accessible route that have cross-slope problems or changes in level.

32. No notice to Defendants is required under ADAAG as a result of Defendants' failure to cure the violations contained herein during the many decades since ADAAG's adoption. Congress did not require disabled people to beg for access—the duty lies with the property owner and business to comply with the law.

33. Plaintiff has visited the Premises to shop most recently in February of 2020. Plaintiff plans to return to the Premises and will continue to encounter the barriers described in this Complaint if they are not remedied.

34. The barriers to access on the Premises exclude persons with disabilities such as Plaintiff from full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, privileges and accommodations offered by Defendants.

35. Defendants have failed to make establish or modify their policies, practices and procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities. Specifically, Defendants have failed to modify or establish procedures to ensure: 1) violations of the ADA do not occur on the Premises in the future, and 2) any future violations of the ADA on the Premises are identified and remedied in a timely manner.

36. As a result of Defendants' unlawful architecture and failure to remedy, Plaintiff and other disabled persons are subject to ongoing discrimination due to their disability, as well as embarrassment, distress, indignity and limitations to their personal freedom.

37. Plaintiff's knowledge of the barriers described in this Complaint deterred Plaintiff's access to, or full use and enjoyment of the Premises.

38. Plaintiff believes that the Premises has additional architectural barriers on the interior of the Premises that violate ADAAG and which would require additional inspection and access to the interior of the Premises, which barriers include but are not limited to problems with service counters and bathroom facilities and changes in level. Plaintiff lacks the technical experience and ability to use measuring instruments herself and did not want to disrupt the business operations at the Premises by having her counsel do so without permission from the Defendants and so only exterior measurements were performed at the Premises that would not alarm or interfere with other patrons of the Premises. Plaintiff experienced difficulty with the areas described in this paragraph and therefore has a reasonable belief that they include architectural barriers.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Injunction for Violation of Title III of the ADA

39. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing paragraphs herein.
40. Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act expressly prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, privileges or accommodations by any person owns, leases or operates any place of public accommodations.¹⁵
41. Defendants own, lease and/or operate a place of public accommodation and are subject to the requirements of Title III of the ADA¹⁶.
42. Under the ADA, failure to remove architectural barriers to access by disabled persons, where readily achievable, constitutes discrimination.¹⁷

¹⁵ 42 U.S.C. §12101.

¹⁶ 28 C.F.R. §36.104; 42 U.S.C. §12181(7).

¹⁷ 42 U.S.C. §12181(2)(A).

43. The Department of Justice defined “readily achievable” as meaning “easily accomplishable and able to be carried out without much difficulty or expense”¹⁸.

44. Defendants have engaged in discriminatory practices by: 1) failing to construct their facility in a way that is readily accessible to persons with disabilities, 2) failing to comply with ADA guidelines when remodeling facilities, 3) failing to remove architectural barriers to access, where removal is readily achievable and 4) operating their facility in a way which does not allow disabled persons to fully and equally access the goods and services provided to the general public.

45. Defendants have continued their discriminatory practices against persons with disabilities by refusing or otherwise failing to remove architectural barriers to access.

46. Because of Defendants’ unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and other disabled persons have been subjected to discrimination by being unable to fully and equally access the goods, services and facilities offered to the general public, to the fullest extent possible. Plaintiff and other disabled persons continue to be irreparably harmed as the discrimination is ongoing.

47. Plaintiff is entitled to a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to correct each violation of the ADA identified herein pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §12188(a).

48. Plaintiff was required to retain counsel to pursue this action and is entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs for bringing this suit, as specifically allowed by 42 U.S.C. §12205.

¹⁸ 28 C.F.R. 6.304(a).

49. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing paragraphs herein.
50. Plaintiff seeks declaratory relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2201.
51. Plaintiff requests declaratory judgment: 1) declaring an actual controversy between Plaintiff and Defendants with regard to each of Defendants' violations of the ADA, and 2) specifying Plaintiff's rights as a disabled person under the ADA as they pertain to Defendant's facility.

- C. For an award of Plaintiff's attorney's fees and costs of bringing this suit as authorized by the ADA at 42 U.S.C. §12205; and
- D. For any and all other relief the Court deems just and equitable.
